2016

Greetings!

The year 2016 featured several reminders how the fight against HIV and AIDS has changed—and yet remains a challenge in need of response.

Our staff began the year educating the student cast and crew of the Brattleboro Union High School musical "Rent," which tells of the time before today's teens were born when the virus wasn't a treatable disease but instead a death sentence.

Adult actors from throughout Windham County also dramatized the earlier era in "Elegies for Angels, Punks and Raging Queens," a fall APSV fundraiser that brought the story of The Names Project AIDS Memorial Quilt to Brattleboro's Latchis Theatre.

Our offices in Brattleboro and Bennington continue to help more than 80 clients with such staples as nutritious food, safe and affordable housing, rides to appointments and access to health care and medications.

Our prevention efforts, which provide free and anonymous HIV and Hepatitis C testing, safer sex supplies and one-on-one sessions to help clients make healthy choices, expanded in 2016. Our new Syringe Services Program, offering free sterile syringes and referrals to health and addiction treatment, has generated strong local interest and participation.

On the eve of our 30th anniversary, we remain committed to addressing the needs of individuals living with or at risk for contracting HIV—and appreciating the community for its continued support.

Sincerely,

Patrick Brown
Chair, Board of Directors

Karen Peterson
Executive Director
