As we prepare to mark our 30th anniversary, we remain committed to some of the work of our Brattleboro and Bennington offices in 2017. Sterile syringes and treatment referrals. The following snapshots illustrate just and hepatitis C testing, and access to health care, medications, safer sex supplies, clients with nutritious food, safe and affordable housing, free confidential HIV control as we crossed the street during our 30th Walk for .

Every attempt at accuracy has been made in compiling the list of supporters. Please inform us of errors or omissions.

2017 Board of Directors: Penny Abbott, Rex, Shawn Bracchiardi, Patrick Brown, Geoff Burgess, David Carr, Rick Ouma, Robert Glennon, Julie van der Horst Jansen, Charles Lappen, Alexander Potter

2017 Staff Members: Steven Brooks, Sue Conley, Cynthia H. Austin, Marguerite Monet, Kevin O’Connor, Diane Parton, Karen Peterson

We here at the AIDS Project of Southern Vermont are helping more than 80 clients with nutritious food, safe and affordable housing, free confidential HIV and hepatitis C testing, and access to health care, medications, safer sex supplies, sterile syringes and treatment referrals. The following snapshots illustrate just some of the work of our Brattleboro and Bennington offices in 2017.

As we prepare to mark our 30th anniversary, we remain committed to addressing the needs of individuals living with or at risk for contracting HIV – and appreciating the community for its continued support.

Sincerely,

Patrick Brown
Chair, Board of Directors

Karen Peterson
Executive Director

The mission of the AIDS Project of Southern Vermont is to provide direct services to those whose lives are affected by HIV/AIDS, to offer education to help prevent its spread, and to promote understanding within the communities served.

AIDS Project of Southern Vermont

We here at the AIDS Project of Southern Vermont are helping more than 80 clients with nutritious food, safe and affordable housing, free confidential HIV and hepatitis C testing, and access to health care, medications, safer sex supplies, sterile syringes and treatment referrals. The following snapshots illustrate just some of the work of our Brattleboro and Bennington offices in 2017.

As we prepare to mark our 30th anniversary, we remain committed to addressing the needs of individuals living with or at risk for contracting HIV – and appreciating the community for its continued support.

Sincerely,

Patrick Brown
Chair, Board of Directors

Karen Peterson
Executive Director

The mission of the AIDS Project of Southern Vermont is to provide direct services to those whose lives are affected by HIV/AIDS, to offer education to help prevent its spread, and to promote understanding within the communities served.

AIDS Project of Southern Vermont